

The Trinity:

Three unique persons in one God

The Bible teaches that there is only one God (see Deut 4:39, 2 Sam 7:22, Isaiah 43:10-13). The Bible also teaches that there are three distinct persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, that make up the one God of the Bible (see Gen 1:26, 3:22 and 11:7, Matthew 3:16-17, 1 Peter 1:2, Jude 20-21).

THE FATHER:

The Father holds the place of authority within the trinity. He is not more important than the Son or the Holy Spirit, but He authorizes their ministries (see John 6:38 and 14:16).

THE SON: The Son, Jesus Christ, was sent by the Father to free us from our sin. He has paid the penalty for our sin and has risen from the grave, conquering death for all those who believe in Him. He now sits at the right hand of the Father in heaven (see Eph 2, and Rom 8).

THE HOLY

SPIRIT: The Holy Spirit has been sent by the Father to testify of Jesus and convict the world of sin, righteousness and judgment. When we become Christians, the Holy Spirit comes and dwells in us. The Holy Spirit is given to us by the Father and is to be a helper to us (see John 14-16).
