

Daniel 1

1) What timestamp do we get at the beginning of this book?

* This puts us at roughly 605 BC, by the way!

2) Who comes to Jerusalem that year? What does he do there?

3) Who does the Lord give into his hands?

4) What else does the Lord give him?

5) What does Nebuchadnezzar do with these items (2)?

6) Who is Ashpenaz?

7) What is he told to bring (3)?

8) What characteristics are given about these young men (7)?

9) What do they hope to teach these men (2)?

10) What does the king appoint for them (3)?

11) For what end does he train them?

12) From among those of the sons of Judah who were taken, who is mentioned by name (4)?
For the purpose of clarity, write an “equal” sign after the names and list their Babylonian names as well.

13) What does Daniel purpose in his heart? What would have caused defilement (2)?

14) What does he do as a result?

15) What had God done by this point?

19) What are they to eat and drink during this time?

20) What is to be examined after this time?

21) What was the result after 10 days?

22) What happens as a result (2)?

23) Now look back at v. 8. Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself. Does this word “defile” (meaning “to pollute, soil, or stain”) indicate that he is worried about a healthy vegetarian diet or about possibly not eating food sacrificed to idols?

24) What has God given these 4 young men (2)?

25) In what is this skill (2)?

26) On top of this, what does Daniel have?

27) In what is this understanding (2)?

28) At the end of the training period, where are they taken?

29) How do they compare in v. 19?

30) What is their position as a result?

31) In what did the king find them 10 times better than his magicians and astrologers (2)?

32) Who gave them these things again, according to v. 17?

33) How long does Daniel continue in this position?

- 3) He then begins the bulk of his message. What will arise in Persia?
- 4) What will arise after they do? What is unique about him?
- 5) What will he do through his riches?
- 6) Who will arise next? What will he do (2)?
- 7) When he has arisen, what will happen (2)?
- 8) How will his kingdom NOT be divided (2)?
- 9) What will happen to his kingdom?
- 10) Now we come to a potentially baffling section of Scripture that portrays a strikingly accurate depiction of what took place after the death of Alexander the Great. Let's dig in and make some sense of this. First, we meet the king of the South. What does he do/become/receive in v. 5 (3)?
- 11) Who else is mentioned in his kingdom?
- 12) What is said about this king of the South's dominion?

13) Now, we fast-forward some years. The lineage of the notable prince has become that of the kingdom of the North. According to v. 6, the North and South join forces. How does this happen?

14) However, this peace does not last. As she does not retain the power of her authority, and her father and his authority does not stand, what happens?

15) Who else is affected in this giving up (3)?

16) Despite her demise, a relative (a “branch of her roots”) arises. What shall this Southern avenger do in v. 7 (4)?

17) Also, what will he take captive (3)?

18) What will he do more than his rival to the North?

19) This king of the North will then come to the kingdom of the king of the South. What is the result, according to v. 9?

20) Next, we come to the sons of this defeated king of the North. What will they do (2)?

21) What will one of them do (5)?

22) The next king of the South is moved with rage at this strife. What will he do (2)?

- 23) Although the king of the North has a great multitude, what happens?
- 24) What is the reaction of the king of the South in taking this multitude?
- 25) What will he do next? Is this successful?
- 26) The king of the North returns! With what does he come, according to v. 13 (2)?
- 27) A multitude also joins him. Against whom will they rise up?
- 28) Furthermore, violent Jews aid this excursion. What do they do? Is their purpose successful?
- 29) Back to the king of the North, what will he do (3)?
- 30) How effective are the troops of the South (2)?
- 31) According to what will the king of the North act?
- 32) Who shall stand against him?
- 33) How shall he stand in the Glorious Land?
- 34) With what will he set his face to enter (2)? Is he successful?
- 35) For what reason does he give the daughter of women to the king of the South?

36) However, what does she not do (2)?

37) After this, what will the same king of the North do? To what extent is he successful?

38) However, a different ruler is introduced. What does he do (2)?

39) Now, the king of the North turns his face toward the fortress of his own land. However, what is his end (3)?

40) A new ruler takes power in the North. What is he known for doing, and to whom does he do it?

41) What is the extent of his fate?

42) After him, we meet the main Greek antagonist of this prophecy. What is this new king of the North called in v. 21?

43) What is he not given? Rather, how does he take power (2)?

44) What will happen to those before him (with the force of a flood) (2)?

45) Who else is broken here?

46) How will he act after the league is made with him?

47) How does this look (what does he do in v. 23) (2)?

48) As he enters peaceably, what does he do that even his fathers and forefathers didn't do?

49) Against what will he devise plans, and for how long?

50) What will this same king of the North stir up against the king of the South (2)?

51) What will the king of the South bring to battle?

52) Will he succeed? Why or why not?

53) What will happen to him and his people, according to v. 26 (3)?

54) Now these 2 kings converge and are bent on evil. What do they both do?

55) Will this prosper? Why or why not?

56) While this evil king of the North returns to his land with great riches, what happens in his heart?

57) What does he do as a result (2)?

58) At the appointed time, what will this king of the North do (2)?

59) What it not be like? Why?

60) What will he do as a result of this navy (5)?

61) As he musters forces, what will they do (3)?

62) How will he corrupt those who do wickedly against the covenant?

63) What will the people who know their God do (2)?

64) Despite the fact that those of the people who understand shall instruct many, they shall fall for many days. By what means will they fall (4)?

65) As they get a little help when they fall, how will many join them?

66) Some of those of understanding shall fall for what purpose (3)?

67) Until when? Why?

68) Fast-forwarding to an even worse guy, what will the king do according to his own will, as seen in v. 36 (4)?

69) Who/what shall he not regard (3)?

70) Why not?

71) What kind of god will he honor, according to v. 38 (2)?

72) With what will he honor it (4)?

73) Against what will this king act?

74) He does this by his god. What will he do with this god (2)?

75) What will he do with the land, and why?

76) At this point, what will the king of the South do?

77) With what will the king of the North come against him like a whirlwind (3)?

78) What shall he do, according to v. 40 (3)?

79) What will happen when he enters the Glorious Land?

80) Who will escape from his hand (3)?

81) Who will NOT escape?

82) Over what will he have power (3)?

83) What nations will follow at his heels (2)?

84) However what will trouble him (2)?

85) Therefore, what will he do?

86) Where will he plant the tents of his palace?

87) In spite of all this, what is his fate?

88) Who can help him?

Daniel 12

- 1) At that time, who will stand up?
- 2) What is his title, and what is his job?
- 3) Then there will be a time of trouble. To what extent will this trouble be?
- 4) What will happen at that time?
- 5) Who exactly will be delivered?
- 6) What will many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth do?
- 7) There are 2 states they will resurrect to. What are they (2)?
- 8) Who will shine like the brightness of the firmament?
- 9) Who will shine like the stars forever and ever?
- 10) As for Daniel, what is he to do? Until when is this to happen?
- 11) What 2 things will happen, according to v. 4?
- 12) When Daniel looks in v. 5, what does he see?
- 13) What does one ask the man clothed in linen?
- 14) The man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, what does he hold up?

15) What does he swear in answer to the question? Again, if a time is 1 year, and times is 2 years, how long is this time period given in v. 25?

16) When will all these things be finished?

17) Does Daniel understand this? What does he ask?

18) What is the response?

19) What shall many be (3)?

20) What will the wicked do? What will the wicked NOT do?

21) Who will understand?

22) A time is spoken of in v. 11. What 2 things mark that time?

23) How much time will there be after these events?

24) Then a blessing is given. What must one do to receive this blessing (2)?

25) As for Daniel, what is he to do?

26) What shall he do (2)? To what shall he arise at the end of the days?
