

Habakkuk 1

- 1) What is this message called at the beginning of the book?

- 2) The first 4 verses are the words of the distraught prophet. Let's break down these verses.
  - a) What question does he ask the Lord (the first 2 words in v. 2 after "O Lord")?

  - b) What does he say he has done, and what does he say the Lord has not done?

  - c) What does he cry out, and what does he say the Lord will not do?

  - d) What question does he then ask the Lord (the first word in v. 3)?

  - e) What does he say the Lord shows him/causes him to see (2)?

  - f) What does he say is before him (2)?

  - g) What else is there?

  - h) What arises?

  - i) Therefore, what does the prophet conclude (2)?

  - j) What does he say the wicked do?

  - k) Therefore, what does the prophet say is the result?

- 3) We then get the Lord's reply to Habakkuk.
  - a) What 3 commands are given in v. 5?

  - b) Why would Habakkuk be utterly astounded?

  - c) Who is He raising up?

4) Now for a description of this nation:

a) What is said about them (2)?

b) What do they do, and for what purpose?

c) What is said about them in v. 7 (2)?

d) From where do their judgment and dignity proceed?

5) Now for their cavalry:

a) What is said about their horses (2)?

b) What do their chargers do?

c) What does their cavalry do (2)?

6) What 8 statements in v. 9-10 are made about the intent and intensity of this nation?

7) Then a change in heart:

a) What does he do, according to v.11?

b) What is the result?

c) In what way does he commit offense?

8) Now look back to the questions that Habakkuk asks. Does the Lord answer the question “How long?”

9) Does He seem to answer the question “Why?”

10) Apparently, the prophet does not like the Lord’s answers, because he begins questioning the Lord again! Let’s look at this:

a) What question does he ask the Lord (the first 5 words in v. 12)?

b) What does he call the Lord (3)?

c) What is his conclusion?

d) What does the prophet say the Lord has done?

e) What does the prophet say the Rock has done?

f) What 2 statements does the prophet make about the Lord in v. 13?

g) What question does he then ask the Lord (1 word)?

h) What does the prophet say the Lord does (2)?

i) Who does the prophet say is more righteous, the conqueror or the conquered?

j) What question does he again ask the Lord (1 word)?

k) What does he say the Lord makes men like (2)?

11) Habakkuk then describes the actions of this conquering nation. Let's look at his words:
a) What does he say they do (3)?

b) Therefore, how do they react (2)?

c) What do they therefore do then, according to v. 16 (2)?

d) Why do they do this (2)?

12) He then asks the Lord another question. What does he ask the Lord if they shall continue to do (2)?

Habakkuk 2

- 1) At the beginning of this chapter, Habakkuk makes his position clear. First, what does he say he will do (3)?

- 2) What will he watch to see (2)?

- 3) As he waits for the Lord's response, the Lord then answers! What 2 commands does He give Habakkuk in v. 2?

- 4) Why is Habakkuk to make it plain?

- 5) Although the vision is for an appointed time, what will it do at the end?

- 6) What will it NOT do?

- 7) Although it tarries, what is to be done? Why (2)?

- 8) We then have a juxtaposition. What is said about the proud here?

- 9) What is said about the just?

- 10) In what way is a soul that is not upright the opposite of one who lives by his faith?

- 11) By what does he transgress?

- 12) What is the result (2)?

13) We then get more characteristics of this man. What is said him in the following statements:

a) he enlarges his desire:

b) he is like:

c) he cannot:

14) As a result, what does he gather to himself?

15) What does he heap up for himself?

16) However, what will these peoples take up against him (2)?

22) What other reason is given?

23) Upon what 3 groups has violence risen?

24) Now, we have our 2nd of 5 woes (v. 9). What has been done to bring this woe?

25) Why has he done this (2)?

26) What do they give? To whom do they do this?

27) What is the result (2)?

28) What will the stone do? Who will answer it?

29) For the 3rd woe (v .12), what is done to merit this woe (2)?

30) What is the Lord called in v. 13?

31) What do the peoples do, and for what purpose?

32) What do the nations do, and for what purpose?

33) What will the earth be filled with?

34) What will this outpouring of knowledge be similar to?

35) Moving to woe 4 out of 5, what is done to incur this woe?

36) Why does he press the victim to his bottle? To what end?

37) What therefore is the recipient of this woe filled with?

38) What are they NOT filled with?

- 39) What is commanded for the oppressor to do (2)?
- 40) What will be turned against them?
- 41) What will be on their glory?
- 42) What will cover them, according to v. 17 (2)?
- 43) The remainder of v. 17 is a quote from what part of this chapter?
- 44) What question is asked about an image in v. 18?
- 45) What is the molded image called?
- 46) What 2 things does the maker do in v. 18 (2)?
- 47) What does he make?
- 48) Now for the 5th woe! What does the one upon whom this woe falls say to wood?
- 49) What does he say to silent stone?
- 50) Although it is overlaid with gold and silver, what observation is made about it?
- 51) In juxtaposition, what is said about the Lord in v. 20?
- 52) As a result, what is commanded?

53) Look back to 1:12-14. How does the Lord answer Habakkuk's questions?

Habakkuk 3

- 1) What is chapter 3 called?
- 2) What is Habakkuk called, and on what is this prayer set forth?
- 3) What has Habakkuk heard? What was the result?
- 4) What does he ask the Lord to do? When?
- 5) What else does he ask to happen in the midst of years?
- 6) In the last line of v. 2, what is the expected state of things?
- 7) What does Habakkuk ask the Lord to do in the midst of this wrath?
- 8) From where did the Lord come?
- 9) What else does Habakkuk call the Lord? Where did He come from?
- 10) What covered the heavens?
- 11) What filled the earth?
- 12) What was his brightness like?
- 13) What came flashing from His hand?
- 14) What was hidden there?
- 15) What went before Him?

16) What followed at his feet?

17) What did the Lord do, according to v. 6 (4)?

18) What was the result (2)?

19) What is said about His ways?

20) What did Habakkuk see? What was the state of these items?

21) What else did Habakkuk see? What was the state of these items?

22) He then asks the Lord about 3 emotions against their respective targets. What are these questions?

23) Upon what did He ride?

24) What are His chariots called?

25) What was made quite ready? Over what were oaths sworn?

26) What did the Lord divide? With what?

27) We then see the state of the earth. Complete the following:
