

Haggai 1

1) What timestamp do we get at the beginning of this chapter? Read Ezra 4 as a precursor for the contents of this book (Ezra 5:1 identifies the writing of this prophecy as during this time).

2) What is it that comes to Haggai?

3) To whom is he a prophet (sure to include all info given about these people) (2)?

4) According to the Lord, the people say that what time has not come?

5) However, the people seem to think it's time for them to dwell where?

6) What is the state of the temple during this time?

7) What command does the Lord give them?

8) There are 5 phrases that indicate the lack of fruitfulness in the land. Below, list the efforts of the people on the left and the result on the right.

Efforts	Result
---------	--------

9) What does the Lord again command them in v. 7?

10) What 2 other commands does He give?

11) What would be the result (2)?

12) What was the result of them looking for much, finding little, and bring it home?

13) Why did He do this?

14) Therefore, what was the result (2)?

15) The Lord called for drought upon what (9)?

16) Then, 3 people or groups are mentioned as obedient to this call. Who are they?

17) What did they obey (2)?

18) Who again sent Haggai?

19) What is the end result for the people?

20) What is Haggai called in v. 13?

21) What is the Lord's reaction to their obedience?

22) Whose spirit then does the Lord stir up (3)?

23) What does this inspire them to do (2)?

24) When did they do this?

Haggai 2

- 1) What timestamp do we get at the beginning of this chapter?
- 2) Who does the Lord command Haggai to address now (3)?
- 3) What 3 questions does the Lord ask these people?
- 4) What does the Lord tell these 3 to be?
- 5) What does He tell them to do, and with what motivation?
- 6) According to v. 5, what remains among them? According to what word is this true?
- 7) As a result of this Spirit, what are they to not do?
- 8) What does the Lord call Himself in v. 6?
- 9) What will the Lord once more shake (5)?
- 10) When this happens, where will the nations come to?
- 11) What will the Lord then do?

- 12) What belongs to the Lord (2)?

- 13) What will be greater: the glory of the latter temple, or the glory of the former temple?

- 14) What will the Lord give in this place?

- 15) What timestamp do we get in v. 10?

- 16) Who is Haggai to ask, and concerning what is he to ask?

- 17) He then speaks a hypothetical question. Let's break this down:
 - a) To start with, what is the priest carrying?

 - b) In what is he carrying it?

 - c) What might he touch with the edge (5)?

 - d) What is the resulting question to the priests?

 - e) What is their response?

- 18) For the next hypothetical question:
 - a) What is the state of the person?

 - b) Why is he unclean?

 - c) What would happen if he touches bread, stew, wine, or oil?

- 19) Now for their application, to what does the Lord compare these things (3)?

- 20) What is His estimation of the things they offer Him?

21) Now, what are they to do? What adverb is used to describe the manner of doing this? For how long are they to do this?

22) Before 1 stone was laid upon another, they had lack of fruitfulness. What 2 phrases give us this indication of unfruitfulness?

23) With what did the Lord strike them (3)?

24) In what did He do this?

25) And yet, what did they not do?

26) On what day was the foundation of the Lord's temple laid?

27) They are then told to consider. What question does He ask them?

28) And yet, what has not yielded fruit (3)?

29) However, what does the Lord say He will do?

30) Who is Haggai to address, according to v. 20?

31) What does the Lord say He will do (6)?

32) What will be the result for the horses and their riders? By what will this happen?

33) In that day, who will the Lord take?

34) What will He make this man?

35) Why will He do this?

36) Who again says this will happen?